SYLVAN ADAMS
YM-YWHA
CCJ BEN WEIDER JCC
HARRY BRONFMAN YCC

Job Opening: Wolves InterCity Basketball Coach

The Sylvan Adams YM-YWHA ("the Y") is a member-driven organization dedicated to strengthening Jewish life and community in Montreal through sports, wellness, leadership, and educational programming.
The Wolves InterCity Basketball Program provides a competitive youth basketball experience focused on long-term athlete development, Safe Sport principles, and the Canada Basketball Teach → Apply → Compete → Reflect coaching model.
The Wolves InterCity Basketball Coach is a part-time seasonal position reporting to the Manager, Leagues and Basketball Operations and is responsible for planning, delivering, and supporting competitive basketball programming for youth athletes.

Key Responsibilities
Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Plan and deliver practices aligned with the Wolves coaching model.
- Create a positive and emotionally safe learning environment.
- Lead games, tournaments, and team activities.
- Provide mid-season and end-of-season athlete feedback.
- Maintain regular communication with athletes and families.
- Follow league regulations, Wolves policies, and Safe Sport standards.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Basketball coaching and/or playing experience.
- Passion for youth athlete development.
- Strong leadership and communication skills.
- Evening and weekend availability.
- Commitment to Safe Sport principles.

SCHEDULE:

- Evening practices during the week.
- Weekend games and tournaments.
- September 2026 to April 2027 seasonal commitment.

COMPENSATION:

- Honorarium commensurate with experience and assignment.
- Required coaching certifications covered by the program.
- Complimentary YM-YWHA membership during employment.

Please submit your CV and a brief introduction to wolves@ymywha.com. Only those candidates who are selected for an interview will be contacted.